

Basic Plumbing for Householders (Part-Time) January Start

This is a short course aimed at providing householders and people with an interest in entering the plumbing profession with basic plumbing and heating installation/maintenance skills and knowledge.

This course runs 1 evening a week for 8 weeks.

Entry Requirements

None.

Course Modules

This course covers basic plumbing/maintenance tasks such as:

- Copper and plastic pipe joining, bending and testing
- Waste pipe installation
- Radiator installation
- Basic household plumbing maintenance tasks for taps, toilets and radiators
- Fault finding
- Installing and testing rainwater gutters and downpipes

Additional Costs

There is a £195 Materials fee.

STUDY MODE

PT

LOCATION

Neath College - 03308 188 100

COURSE LENGTH

8W